Miller Explains 4¢ Gasoline Tax To County Commissioners

The Coffee County Commission met in regular session on Monday, May 14, at the courthouse in Enterprise, and heard Senator Wallace Miller state, "I haven't found any sentiment for an additional 4 cents per gallon tax on gas."

Senator Miller met with the Commission to discuss the proposed benefits of the new tax package, and read from a booklet provided by the State Highway Department. Miller reported that no new gasoline taxes have been added since 1955, and it has caused problems in the Highway Department. At the present time, according to the study, over 18,000 miles of roads need resurfacing in Alabama, and 1447 bridges need immediate repairs. The bill for this maintenance work would be $60 million annually.

"I'm not real excited about what is proposed," admitted Miller, "and I am not committed to vote for the 4 cents tax. I don't think we need to put a 4 cents tax on the backs of the people unless it can help them with added services."

Senator Miller showed the Commission pictures of bridges and roads in Coffee County that need immediate work and read a list of state priorities for work to be done with funds received. The list included (1) additional 4-laning from Enterprise to Wicksburg, (2) widening of Rucker Blvd. in Enterprise, (3) 4-laning of the bypass in Enterprise, and (4) widening of part of Highway 87, north of Elba.

"According to the state's priority list," added Miller, "the money will be spent on these roads. However, the list can be changed by political office-holders. The county would receive an additional $511,461 per year under the new tax package, and it is my understanding you can use it where you want."

The Commission agreed to meet with Sen. Miller and Rep. Jimmy Holley on Monday, May 21, to discuss in detail the exact benefits from the proposed tax package.

Monday's meeting began at 10:00 a.m., and the first order of business was to open bids on equipment for the County Highway Department. The first bids were on two 2-ton trucks with dump bodies. The only bid received was from Dowling Truck & Tractor in the amount of $12,344 each. The bid was accepted.

A total of three bids were received for a 15-foot rotary mower. They were: Elba Tractor Co. - $6,100; Anderson Tractor Co. - $4,775; and Rose Hill Tractor Co. - $4,933.20. The Commission decided not to go with the low bid, and voted to buy the mower from the Rose Hill Tractor Company.

Five bids were received on a tractor. They were: Rose Hill Tractor Co. - $9,829.23 (alternate bid of $9,997.67); Tractor & Equipment Co. - $10,485; Metcalf Tractor Co. - $10,700 (alternate bid of $10,300); Elba Tractor Co. - $9,738; and Anderson Tractor Co. - $10,225. The Commission voted to accept the low bid from the Elba Tractor Company.

Probate Judge James L. Sawyer told the Commission: "The county had received a good report on the jail from the State Inspector. that summer youth help would again be available for the county."

he had received a progress report from the Southeast Alabama Regional Planning & Development Commission for a 7-county area.

and, read a letter from the Mental Health Board that revealed the county's representatives on the board had missed 6 straight meetings.

Mr. Rufus Bradley headed a good-sized delegation that appeared at the meeting to complain about the excessive traffic and dust on the Goodman Road.

"Are you going to do anything to our road, and if so, when?" asked Bradley. "We would rather have the way it was than to work it up and then leave it. The road has become a race track."

Commissioner Bennie Beckham reported, "The State has given priority to preserving our present roads and not paving new ones."

"There always used to be money to pave new roads," remarked Bradley, "but lately it seems to have disappeared. The other commissioners always black-topped roads - why can't you?"

Mrs. Bradley stated the excessive dust from the road had caused her husband to develop bronchitis, and her to get asthma.

The Commission told the delegation it was planned to pave the road, and it would be done as soon as money becomes available.

Mr. Kenneth Ball, County Health Officer, met with the Commission and shared some good news. "I have been able to get a commitment from a State agency to provide funds to hire back one nurse and one secretary. This will allow us to re-open the clinics for immunization, child care and maternity aid for a 6-month period."

Ball also reported that the geologist will be in the county on May 17 to check the new landfill sites, and repeated the need to keep a second environmentalist in the county. The Commission, by a vote of 4-2, agreed to pay the environmentalist's salary for six months at a cost of $8,500.

After being asked by the Commission, Ball stated he had received no answer from the State on whether or not they would pay the electric bill for the WIC program.

Coroners Danny Bradley and Marvin McIlwain were back before the Commission seeking an expense allowance. "We have come before you over the years seeking an expense allowance," said McIlwain, "and we feel it is fair. We have to buy our own vehicle and our own radio, and I feel our request for a $100-a-month allowance is justified."

The Commission agreed that the request was justified, and granted the corners on the fine job they do, but took no new action on the request.

Commission Clerk Brunese Winston told the Commission: "The time is coming up to renew the county health insurance."

the time is also near to send out gasoline proposals; the Budget Committee needs to begin meeting; and, there is no janitor for the courthouse in Elba.

County Engineer Leslie Mullins asked the Commission to pay a bill for $6,900 for installation of concrete flumes at the new National Guard Armory in Enterprise. The Commission agreed to pay the bill, for which the county will be reimbursed by the State.

Mr. L. M. Burch addressed the Commission and requested he be allowed to up the garbage fee from $4 to $5 a month. The Commission agreed, and Burch pledged to improve the service. One problem Burch reported was about the collection of fees.

Burch said many customers reported they had paid for 6-12 months service, and would not pay again. The problem will be discussed at the next meeting.

Grand Jury Criticizes Conditions In Buildings

The Elba Division Grand Jury was highly critical of the fact that the Coffee County Commissioners have continually ignored mandates of past Grand Juries; noted the office of the Superintendent of Education, "appeared to be lavishly decorated with very plush carpet and furnishings."

The Grand Jury pointed to leaking roofs that had been prevalent in the buildings for four years. They "would be very interested in knowing how the redecoration and renovation of these offices (education) were financed."

The report was sprinkled with words like mandate, demand, immediately, and climaxed with "forming an ad-hoc committee for the purpose of periodic inspections until the next Grand Jury is empaneled to determine whether the mandates of this Grand Jury have been complied with. The committee is required to make reports on their inspections to one of the Circuit Judges of this circuit."

The Jury returned 25 indictments from 29 presentments. Twenty-three of these were in felony indictments. One cast was continued by the Grand Jury for further investigation.

Elba High Announces Graduation Activities

Elba High School Principal Lamar Foley announces that baccalaureate services for the graduating seniors will be held Sunday night, May 20, at 8:00 in the high school auditorium. Rev. James J. Arbogast, pastor of the Elba First Assembly of God, will deliver the commencement address. The invocation will be rendered by Rev. W. H. Bass, pastor of the Opp Nazareth Baptist Church; and Mr. Fred Clark, member of the city board of education, will pronounce benediction. Special music for the even-

Elba Council Debates Signing Resolution

The Elba City Council met Tuesday night, listened to recommendation from high school students who had spent a day at city hall fulfilling the various elected and appointed offices of the City of Elba. They also spent time debating signing a resolution about the financing of the nursing home and hospital expansion that was approved unanimously by the Council in February.

Doug Martin reported that the students recommended cleaning of the streets and sidewalks; filling the pot holes in the streets and adding some red lights. They urged the active search for new industry to entice the teenagers to remain in Elba and prevent it becoming "a ghost town". Also needed according to the students is a theater and additional eating establishments.

The discussion about underwriting the hospital and nursing home expansion erupted when Mayor Folsom reported they had changed the plans somewhat, and were not assured of the $5 million and noted in his opinion the hospital needed equipment rather than space. He expressed an opinion that the city money should hinge on getting the $5 million, but Councilman Jimmy Wise, who made the motion, in February directing the city clerk to draw up the resolution, insisted no such stipulation was in the motion. After reading the old minutes, this was confirmed.

A vote of four to two was in favor of signing the resolution after some modifications were made. Councilman Wise, Mike Russell, Wayne Sharpless and Cleo Hawkins voted to sign while Councilman English and Mayor Folsom voted against the action.

English was absent from the February meeting when the decision was made and expressed concern over being able to pay such an amount. Folsom had voted for the motion in February and as Councilman Sharpless noted, said, "This is something we can live with."

Needs of the city schools were brought out by Councilman Russell and Hawkins, who both wanted to look at the overall picture and determine what could be done to help the school problem. Russell said that the Council needed to look at both and help them equally, however he said, "We gave the hospital folks our word and we need to keep our word."

The Hospital Board had been billed $2,000 for work already done by the hospital architect and that bill was before the Council for payment. No decision was reached before adjournment and leaving the Council chambers Folsom very strongly told City Clerk Jack Prescott to return the statement to the hospital.

A motion passed at the last Council meeting was rescinded after papers were presented indicating a lawsuit had been filed calling the act unconstitutional. The Council had unanimously passed a motion by Dud English restricting citizens who have family members employed in the school system and those without children from serving on the School Board. The law suit, filed by Mrs. Refina Grimes, claimed that forbidding her from serving on the School Board, "discriminates against those persons who do not have children in school... who pay taxes to support said school."

Mrs. Grimes has made no open push to obtain an appointment to the school board and it was assumed she was acting on the principal rather than actually seeking to serve on the School Board.

The Council was told of action by the Planning and Zoning Board to rezone two pieces of property: Clark Estate on Highway 84 East, across from National Security and also the proposed site of the new Elba Exchange Bank building adjacent to the Elba High School. The Council members were in favor of these changes but final results were delayed when it was discovered neither had been advertised for public hearings.

Transfer of the excess property at the airport to the industrial board was tabled until further information was obtained.

Fred Moore appeared before the Council and briefed the members on the progress on the renovation of the Army Reserve Center. He told the group he expected early acceptance of the work by the Corp of Engineers and was highly complimentary of the firm holding the repair contract.

Bake Sales Must Conform With Law

The Coffee County Health Department would like to take this opportunity to inform the public that bake sales, barbecues, and any other food sales promoted by organizations, clubs or other groups are covered by State of Alabama laws under REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE MANUFACTURE, PREPARATION, DISPLAY AND SERVICE OF FOODS, CONFECTIONS AND BEVERAGES. Anyone promoting or scheduling such an event must contact the Coffee County Health Department in ample time to have facilities approved.

Kindergarden Registration Set

Elba children who will be five years old by October 2, 1979 may attend public Kindergarten by registering at the Elba Elementary School. Parents must bring their child to the school between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. May 29. They must also bring the child's birth certificate and a blue immunization certificate (may be obtained at County Health Office) to the school.

Governor James' plan for a 4 cents gasoline tax is getting some support from taxpayers, but it is mostly private support from people not willing to stand up and take the flak from anti-tax folks. Whatever develops along this line, ye ole editor predicts some additional gasoline tax, and probably the full 4 cents a gallon.

Saturday morning Chris and I again went fishing. We went to a lake in Florida, and it was like a camp meeting with all the boats on the water. It wasn't hard to strike up a conversation, either, 'cause it was like old home week with all the Elba folks we saw trying to catch enough to get their picture in The Elba Clipper.

Last week we published an article about Dr. Crowe leaving his position with the Baptist Association and moving to Muscle Shoals. However, the headline indicated he was retiring. Now, Dr. Crowe was not upset about the error, but did want some assurance the story of his "retirement" would not get to the church in Muscle Shoals that he was leaving his salary.

Teddy Kennedy has come up with a "free" national health plan. Our only comment is that these government give-away programs are going to break my back one of these days. All you Teddy Kennedy supporters remember some of these things when he starts running for president officially.

It seems every week we hear of another horror that is more horrible than the last one. This week it is the story of 100 dead children in Africa. The overzealous guards of Emperor Bokassa I of Central African Empire reportedly clubbed to death these children because they complained about having to wear uniforms to school. Some of the children even threw rocks at the Emperor's car. That problem has been solved, and the same medicine will probably be given to any others that complain.

Tuesday night at the Elba County meeting Mayor Folson was obviously irritated with ye ole editor when I called his hand concerning the proper procedure for rezoning property. Bob was going to rezzone without the required public hearing. I talked to the neighbors and they said it was okay. "We don't doubt this, and don't expect any fussing from anyone, but if the bank folks got a building half-finished, and someone filed a court suit to stop the work because of a very clear law, then there would be problems! The law does require publishing a legal notice in this newspaper, but the amount of money is nil, and our reason for pointing out the law. We don't apologize to anyone for calling attention to one of the few clearly-defined laws on the books, especially when it deals with the people's right to know. Now after the proper legal notice, the public hearing and the expected rezoning, the Exchange Bank can build without fear of having money tied up in a half-finished building they can't complete because of a zoning problem.

The recent 4-H Field Day held at the Elba schools was a happy time for the students. An adult observing the activities was touched by one particular act of loving kindness that was spontaneous by a large group. During one of the ball games, a youngster with Cerebral Palsy was up to bat, got an OK hit, but the competing team cheered rather than make any concrete effort to get an easy out! Today we live in a very competitive world, and from this corner there is always a cheer for people, young and old, who place some things above the objective of recording the highest score in the game! Some adult, either at home, teacher or 4-H leader is doing a fine job when an entire team spontaneously shows such respect for their peer. Well done!

"Hello," a woman says hesitantly. "I, uh, I don't know if I've called the right place. He has a drinking problem. He's always drunk at night. It just seems that lately, he can't control it. When he is drinking we, me and the children, don't know what's going to happen next."

She starts sobbing and the information and referral specialist attempts to assure the woman that she is not alone. "Many families have gone through the same experience," says the specialist. "I'm glad you called. We will be glad to help in any way we can."

According to Martin Wyatt Council Director, calls like this one come into the Council office every day. "Families suffer as much as the person with the illness. And most of them don't know where to turn for help," he said.

"Several agencies in our community provide counseling services to families of alcoholics. We referred this woman to Al-Anon, an organization of family members and friends of alcoholics. We try to let people seeking information know all about all resources in the community that are available to help them with their problem. And all inquiries and referrals are strictly confidential."

The Council maintains a list of treatment facilities in our area, throughout Alabama and surrounding states. "We encourage the family to make every effort to get the alcoholic into treatment. We try to determine which center would be the best for the client and advise the family."

The Council receives about 100 calls per month requesting information about treatment for alcoholics and their families. Sometimes a person with a problem will call and ask for help. "In these cases, we try to place the person in treatment immediately."

Often someone will call needing statistics or general information about the illness. The Council maintains a literature rack with information about alcoholism and treatment agencies and programs for distribution to groups and individuals.

"Our purpose is to provide a central information center for this 4 county area for anyone seeking information about alcoholism and treatment programs. We hope that more people will call and use our services when they have an alcohol problem or need information," stated the Council Director.

The Council, in cooperation with the National Council on Alcoholism-Alabama Division, will be observing "Alcohol Awareness Week" May 13-19.

Dear Sir:

I am interested in securing information, for genealogical purposes, concerning the descendants of William Kelley, who lived in Coffee County, near Elba, from about 1843 to some time in the 1860's, when he and his family moved to Conecuh County, Alabama. One of his sons, Jesse Kelley, I understand, returned to Coffee County and lived there until his death in 1903. He married a Margaret Churchill. They had a number of children, and I would like very much to correspond with any of them who still live in the area, with the hope of securing additional information about this branch of the family.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:

I am interested in securing information, for genealogical purposes, concerning the descendants of William Kelley, who lived in Coffee County, near Elba, from about 1843 to some time in the 1860's, when he and his family moved to Conecuh County, Alabama. One of his sons, Jesse Kelley, I understand, returned to Coffee County and lived there until his death in 1903. He married a Margaret Churchill. They had a number of children, and I would like very much to correspond with any of them who still live in the area, with the hope of securing additional information about this branch of the family.

Very truly yours,
Mrs. F. N. Kelley

"Good afternoon. South Central Alabama Regional Alcoholism Council. May I help you?"

"Hello," a woman says hesitantly. "I, uh, I don't know if I've called the right place. He has a drinking problem. He's always drunk at night. It just seems that lately, he can't control it. When he is drinking we, me and the children, don't know what's going to happen next."

She starts sobbing and the information and referral specialist attempts to assure the woman that she is not alone. "Many families have gone through the same experience," says the specialist. "I'm glad you called. We will be glad to help in any way we can."

According to Martin Wyatt Council Director, calls like this one come into the Council office every day. "Families suffer as much as the person with the illness. And most of them don't know where to turn for help," he said.

"Several agencies in our community provide counseling services to families of alcoholics. We referred this woman to Al-Anon, an organization of family members and friends of alcoholics. We try to let people seeking information know all about all resources in the community that are available to help them with their problem. And all inquiries and referrals are strictly confidential."

The Council maintains a list of treatment facilities in our area, throughout Alabama and surrounding states. "We encourage the family to make every effort to get the alcoholic into treatment. We try to determine which center would be the best for the client and advise the family."

The Council receives about 100 calls per month requesting information about treatment for alcoholics and their families. Sometimes a person with a problem will call and ask for help. "In these cases, we try to place the person in treatment immediately."

THREE NATURES - WHICH ARE YOU?

As we look into life, we see that the lives of men are different. We see there's a difference in color, height, and there is a difference in spiritual nature - the natural, the carnal, and the spiritual man.

These three are found in I Corinthians 2:12-31:6. Let's look at the natural nature first. The natural man, we will say, is the one that has a self-directed life - one that has left Christ out of his life. If he should die, he would not be sorry for he has not received Christ as his Savior. His interests are directed by self, resulting in discord and frustration.

The carnal man is one that has received Christ, but lives in defeat. He trusts in his own efforts to live for Christ and the Christlike life. This also shows a self-directed life. We see a Christ deflected and not allowed to direct this life. The life is filled with unbelief, disobedience, love of love; also this life has a poor prayer life.

no desire for Bible study. If our personal lives show forth this type of life, then we must classify ourselves as carnal Christians. This is not good, for as carnal Christians, we miss the joy that the life with Christ in control holds.

The spiritual nature holds all Christ has to offer. The spiritual man is the one who is directed and empowered by the Holy Spirit. The life will show forth that Christ is on the throne and directing his life. The life will be yielded to Christ - never doing anything that is not directed by Christ and God's will in his life.

HISTORY OF DORCAS BAPTIST CHURCH

Albert L. Strozier

Dorcas Missionary Baptist Church is located on a paved county road about one mile West of Highway 125, the Elba-Brundidge Road in the extreme Northern part of Coffee County. The church was constructed on August 3, 1924.

It might be said that the church began in the minds and hearts of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Tillman. The Tillmans had lived in the community for about twenty years. They were members of the St. Johns Church in Pike County which was some distance away. They longed and prayed for a Baptist church in their own community, and believed that it was the Lord's will that such a church be started. The community was known as Chestnut Grove because originally there was a grove of chestnut trees. Both the local school, and the Methodist Church carried that name.

The Tillmans visited their neighbors at night and as other opportunities were available. They expressed their desire for a church and sought to enlist other Baptists living in the area in such a project. Finally enough interest was generated and the church was organized on August 3, of the year 1924.

Rev. Noble Y. Beall who was pastor of the County Line Church of Coffee County, served as Moderator of the council, assisted by Judge J. A. Carney, with M. L. Tillman serving as clerk. The charter members were Mr. and Mrs. Archie Butts, Maggie Parker, Miss Mittie Reeves, Mrs. Martha Dyeas, Miss D. C. Clower, and Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Tillman. Mrs. Tillman suggested the name Dorcas which was adopted by the new church.

The first services were held in the Chestnut Grove school building on one Sunday a month. Rev. A. W. Boswell of Enterprise was the first pastor called by the church.

Soon after the organization of the church, a revival meeting was held which more than doubled the membership when the church received sixteen new members.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Rogers gave one-half acre of land for a building site. This lot was directly across the road from the present building. About five hundred dollars was raised toward the cost of erecting a church, and another five hundred dollars was borrowed. The M. L. Tillmans donated a large amount of timber toward the erection of the building. This timber was sawed into lumber by Mr. D. C. Clower at a reduced price as a contribution on the building. The men of the church cut and hauled the logs.

Mr. Melvin Chapman of Jack, Alabama was engaged to direct the construction. He was assisted by Mr. Wesley Clower. Others contributed labor as time permitted and the building was soon completed.

A loan of $90.00 was secured to purchase a piano. This loan was partly repaid from the proceeds of two acres of peanuts that were planted as a church project. We are not given the price paid for the peanuts, but the hay sold for $4.00 per ton. By 1929 the debts on the church building were paid off and it was free of debt.

Pastors following A. W. Boswell were J. E. Franks, C. F. Conitt, S. L. Lee, J. E. Plant, Dr. A. M. Glover of Dale County, Max Haggard, H. W. Beasley, and W. G. DeShazo. A number of these were students or graduates of the Baptist Collegiate Institute at Newton, Alabama, a school that trained many Baptist leaders of Southeast Alabama.

Around December 1940 the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Tillman burned, and destroyed some of the church records which were kept by Mrs. Tillman, the church clerk at the time. So we do not have a complete list of all church officers. Included among those who have served as church clerk are Mr. M. L. Tillman, E. M. Phillips, Mrs. H. A. Tillman, Howell Griswold, J. R. Killingsworth, Mrs. Eunice Killingsworth, Willie Merty Oglesby, Dalton Stewart, Mrs. Verma L. Lott, Miss Maxine Hussey, Mrs. Calvin Stinson, Miss Linda Brown, Martha Hussey, Mrs. Etta Mae Griswold, Dalton Stewart, Mrs. Mildred Wilkins, and Mrs. Alice (Cliff) Ohlenburger, the present clerk.

A partial list of those who have served as deacons are M. L. Tillman, Atlas Stone, Amos Chapman, Byrd Phillips, H. A. Tillman, Ed Kendrick, Macon Killingsworth, Howell Griswold, Douglas Lott, Harper Tillman, Lavon Sawyer and Lamar Stewart.

Present deacons are J. R. Killingsworth, Jack Spivey, Harper Tillman, Lamar Stewart, H. A. Tillman, and Lavon Sawyer.

Hule Ziglar was called as pastor in September of 1942 and served for about seven years until October 1949. He was called again on September 23, 1956 and served until September 1958. According to available records Ziglar served longer than any other pastor.

Other pastors following Ziglar's first term were John F. Lindsey, who served the first year of 1950, and resigned in late summer to enter the New Orleans Baptist Seminary. He was followed by George Howard Jones who was called September 24, 1950 and served for about one year. He had previously been a member of Dorcas, and was licensed to preach by the church on September 7, 1947, and had served other churches. Under McCullough's leadership the church went to half-time preaching.

J. L. Hogan of Dozier, Alabama became pastor in the Fall of 1952 and served for about two years. He was followed by E. T. Horton on October 10, 1954. Horton served for about one year. Loyce D. Lackey was the next pastor, but served only a short time and resigned because of illness. Burney Reese of Enterprise served for a time as interim-pastor, and was followed by Hule Ziglar for his second term.

While Ziglar was pastor, on January 6, 1957, the church voted to have preaching services on three Sundays a month, as he was available for such services. After serving to August 17, 1958, Ziglar resigned, and was followed by S. A. Thompson for about three months. Kenneth Fain was the next pastor, and the church voted to go to full-time preaching on August 23, 1959. Fain served for about eighteen months and resigned.

Herbert Y. Unger was called as pastor on October 30, 1960. He was a student at the Baptist Bible Institute at Greenville, Florida. Unger was ordained at Dorcas on January 1, 1961. Robert E. Shook, pastor of New Hope, John Borders of Repton, Eugene Abernathy of Florida, and Albert L. Strozier, Director of Missions for the Coffee County Association, took part in the services. They were assisted by Fonso Tillman and Howell Griswold, deacons of the church. Unger served until July of 1963.

In the Fall of 1961, the church building was moved across to the north side of the road to a lot donated by Mr. Colson Sheffield of Brundidge. That year the church was host to the annual meeting of the Coffee County Association. The church has entertained the Association on several other occasions, also.

In December of 1962, plans were started to enlarge and remodel the building. The building committee was composed of Howell Griswold, H. A. Tillman, J. R. Killingsworth, Mrs. Clyde Tillman, and Mrs. Eunice Killingsworth. The Director of Missions helped in the planning. Six class rooms were added, along with other facilities. The ladies of the church paid for the installation of carpet on the floors.

Ralph Avera was called as pastor in the Fall of 1963 and served for about a year. Reuben Davis served as interim pastor for a while in 1964. The next pastor was Clarence Cottrell, also from the Baptist Bible Institute. He resigned October 1, 1965, to accept a church in Lanett, Alabama.

Jim Lockwood of Chicago, Illinois, was called on October 10, 1965. He came from a Roman Catholic background. After his conversion he became a student at BBI at Graceville, Florida. He was ordained at Dorcas on November 7, 1965.

Randall Killingsworth was licensed to preach by Dorcas Church in 1965. In 1966 another young man, Ben Strength, dedicated himself to the ministry. Kenneth Compton was also licensed on May 4, 1975. A later pastor, Fred McCoy, was ordained at Dorcas on April 9, 1970. The council was composed of Dr. Lewis Curtis, Sam Jones of New Hope, Marion H. Cates of Florida, and others.

Lockwood resigned at the end of February, 1967, to move to the Central Church of Lanett, Alabama. He was followed by Fred McCoy, who served until June 30, 1968.

The building at Dorcas has been remodeled and enlarged several times. A spire was added in 1968. The building was brick-veneered several years ago. Mr. Fred Griswold, Sr., of Enterprise, and a native of the Dorcas Community, paid most of the cost of the brick work, a very substantial gift to the church. In 1966, Mr. Thomas Smith made a donation of $700 toward the cost of new pews. Mrs. Mary Vaughn, a daughter of the M. L. Tillmans, presented new pulpit furniture and other items to the church. She recently passed away in Dothan.

In recent years a heating and air conditioning system has been installed, and a new brick church sign erected. Solid mahogany doors for the sanctuary were donated by Mr. and Mrs. Harper Tillman. In 1962 two acres of land was donated by Mrs. Catherine Tillman as a lot for the pastor's home. A house was bought and remodeled to serve as a home for pastors. The Tillman family and other friends donated an organ to the church in memory of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Tillman.

Among those who have served as Sunday School superintendents at Dorcas are: M. L. Tillman, Charles Phillips, N. G. Tillman, J. C. Daugherty, M. B. Killingsworth, Foster Ziglar, Dock McCullough, Louie Wilkins, Atlas Stone, Lamar Stewart, Lavon Sawyer, Howell Griswold, Dalton Stewart, Randall Killingsworth, Billy Jack Ziglar, Eddie Tillman, Jimmy Vaughn, H. A. Tillman, James Sclari, Kenneth Compton, H. V. Clark, Ed Kendrick, Charlie Kentree, Braswell Smith, Judson Vaughn, I. D. Gardner, Jack Spivey, and possibly others. Some of the above have served more than once.

He attended school there, and at Alexandria, Alabama. Later he attended Gadsden State Junior College, and recently graduated from the Baptist Bible Institute with Bachelor of Ministry degree. He came to Dorcas in April of 1977. He was ordained by the Lakeview Church of Oxford, Alabama. Mrs. Smithman is the former Diane Croson of Oxford. T'was The Night Of Graduation

By: Denise Fuller, Patty Flowers and Greg Egerton

T'was the night of graduation And all over the ground Seniors were chattering And primping their gowns.

Then the Seniors went marching In a row, one by one In hopes that something new Had just begun.

The girls in the white And the boys in the red Walked casually by With nothing to dread.

Pomp and Circumstance Ringing in their ears Left a glow of satisfaction And no time for tears.

They walked so proudly Right up to the Man And grabbed that precious thing He held in his hand.

Now back to their seats To think it all through Decisions about places to go And things to do.

I'll squeeze your hand And you'll squeeze mine That means Good Luck In all we may find.

And we'll call to each other As we drive out of sight Happy Graduation to all And to all a good night.

"GOODBYE"

Class Of 1979

As this very special year comes to its final close and the recognition and Thank You's have been completed We, the 1979 Seniors of Zion Chapel High School, would like to take this time to say goodbye and good luck to each other and to all those who will follow and experience all that we have.

And, finally, if ole' Z. C. could hear us, we want to say Thank You for our memories and all the things we've created in us.

Twelve years of our lives have passed, sometimes slowly, sometimes swiftly, before us and have been crammed with books, homework and memories. We sincerely hope that all those whom we leave behind will stop and consider the chances they have and will make the very most of the time they have.

And, finally, if ole' Z. C. could hear us, we want to say Thank You for our memories and all the things we've created in us.

The Elba Softball Classic and Elba Women's Classic are beginning to take shape as entry fees begin to roll in. Both tournaments are 16-team, double-elimination events and both will take place on June 16 and 17. Everyone is invited to come out and watch and if you didn't get an invitation for your team just let me know.

The Dixie Youth and Babe Ruth Baseball League's started this week and good crowds were on hand for all the games. The boys playing are ages 9-12 and 13-15, and even though the kids don't play like major leaguers they do give their best and deserve your applause. Remember, they're learning how to play and need your support -- Encourage, don't Discourage -- it'll make 'em feel a whole lot better.

I was reading the latest Super Slowpitch newspaper yesterday and it stated that nation's biggest short-stop was Lacy Brumley, a 6-7, 265-pounder for Howard's of North Carolina. That's a big target!

Think your softball team isn't doing to well. Don't give up! Dave Carroll Sports, the number one team in the nation, was in a round-robin tourney at Spartanburg, South Carolina and lost by scores of 41-18 and 40-7, only to bounce back and win the tourney. See, everybody has had games.

Looking for a good player? How about Dave Carroll's James Boyett. Boyett hit 303 home-runs last year, and in 33 games this year has already hit 83 homers and driven-in 164 runs. Not bad!

I still haven't heard anything else about the proposed new tennis courts, so I guess the idea has again died. It's a shame a city with nearly 5,000 people can't support more than one court.

Got to go . . .

Ken Stabler Football Camp At Marion

The Fifth Annual Ken Stabler-Marion Military Institute Football Camp will be held June 10-16 for boys who are the ages of 10-18. The camp began in Marion, Alabama in 1975 with an enrollment of approximately 135 boys for the week-long study of art of football techniques. Last year the camp drew 250 boys, and with the enrollment to date, at least 300 or more should be in attendance this year.

Commenting on his camp, Stabler stated, "We look upon our camp as a public service. Football has meant a lot to me and this is an opportunity I have to give something in return. Each and every year I look forward to going to MMI for a week of enjoyment - sharing (along with the other Pros) our special skills with the boys attending the camp. We are very proud of the fact that there are some 25-30 boys now participating in college football who have attended our camp in the past."

This year the camp has, in addition to the professional staff, the following coaches who will be serving as instructors throughout the week-long camp: John Whitcomb (Camp Director) - Selma High School; Glenn Woodruff - Talladega High School; Rick Rhoades - Troy State University; Ronnie Baynes - Talladega High School; Bobby Johns - Erwin High School, Birmingham; P. D. Pollard - Westside Jr. High, Selma; Jerry North - Newnan High School; Newman, Georgia; Jim Goodman - Marion Military Institute; Gary R. Zauer - Brigham Young University; Hudson Hallman - Clemson University; Eddie Jones - University Military School, Mobile.

The name of Gary Zauer, a kicking specialist, may not be familiar to the people of Alabama. Counted among his students are Russell Erlebein of Texas, who once kicked a 64 yard field goal, and Crimon Tide kicking specialist, Woody Umphries. Zauer has authored a book entitled "The Art of Punting", and is putting together a film on punting and place kicking which will highlight Ray Guy, Russell Erlebein and Tony Franklin of Texas A&M. He will be at the camp during the entire week of activities and will conduct a special punting and place kicking class each day.

The Ken-Stabler - MMI Football Camp meets all the AHSAA-AFSA requirements. The camp is billed as "The Camp for the Pros of Tomorrow" and each participant will have personalized instruction from the "Pros of Today".

Views From THE PRESSBOX

With Ricky Mularz, Sports Editor

The Elba Softball Classic and Elba Women's Classic are beginning to take shape as entry fees begin to roll in. Both tournaments are 16-team, double-elimination events. Both will take place on June 16 and 17. Everyone is invited to come out and watch and if you didn't get an invitation for your team just let me know.

The Dixie Youth and B. Ruth Baseball League's started this week and good crowds were on hand for all the games. The boys playing are ages 9-12 and 13-15, and even though the kids don't play like major leaguers they do give their best and deserve your applause. Remember, they're learning how to play and need your support. Encourage, don't discourage -- it'll make 'em feel a whole lot better.

I was reading the latest Super Slowpitch newspaper yesterday and it stated that nation's biggest short-stop was Lacy Brumley, a 6'7, 265-pounder for Howard's of North Carolina. That's a big target!

Think your softball team isn't doing too well. Don't give up! Dave Carroll Sports, the number one team in the nation, was in a round-robin tourney at Spartanburg, South Carolina and lost by scores of 41-18 and 40-7, only to bounce back and win the tourney. See, everybody has bad games.

Looking for a good player? How about Dave Carroll's James Boyett. Boyett hit 303 home-runs last year, and in 33 games this year has already hit 83 homers and driven in 164 runs. Not bad!

I still haven't heard anything else about the proposed new tennis courts, so I guess the idea has again died. It's a shame a city with nearly 5,000 people can't support more than one court.

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

Mazie Fleming

Our Senior Citizen this week is a doll of a lady by the name of Mazie Fleming. "Mazie" is a joy to know and she is so cheerful and sweet, and always has a ready smile for everyone. She is very attractive, with pretty white hair and immaculate clothing and appearance.

We rather think she is a "pet" of everyone's at the Nursing Home, judging from all the flowers compliments we heard while visiting her; compliments, we might add, she shrugged off and puffed, as Mazie is a very unassuming, retiring sort of person. Getting information, other than basic facts, from her was like, to quote a good old Southern expression, "pulling teeth," in other words - hard!

But the following is what we found out about one Mazie Fleming, and as she put it, "Folks will know more about me than I know myself; I guess I'll be good to talk." Meaning the article. We think we've quoted her correctly - she had the right in the lobby in stitches, she is so amusing and charming!

She was born March 10, 1906, the daughter of Mary Ella and Lucius Peck of Madison, Florida, and named Mazie Myrtle at birth. Madison is a "pretty city," about 50 miles east of it, and about as large as Elba.

Her father owned a mercantile store, "Peck's Mercantile Store," where she said, "he sold everything." She had 2 brothers - Ashley and Leonard - who are both deceased, and one sister, Louella, who is in a nursing home in Florida.

Correct Mazie married James P. Fleming from Lake City, Florida, on June 28, 1925. At the time of their marriage, he was a flagman with the railroad. Shortly after they were married, they moved to Norfolk, Virginia, where he was a superintendent of a chemical plant. Upon his retirement, they moved "back home," and lived in Madison about a year. From Madison, they moved to Enterprise where they lived in apartment.

When Mazie Fleming passed away March 10, 1976, she lived with her husband, James P. Fleming, who was a flagman with the railroad. Shortly after they were married, they moved to Norfolk, Virginia, where he was a superintendent of a chemical plant. Upon his retirement, they moved "back home," and lived in Madison about a year. From Madison, they moved to Enterprise where they lived in apartment.

Elba City Schools had two participants, Donnie Head, who received a gold medal for first place in the 50 yard dash and a silver medal for second place in the softball throw, and Jimmie Daniels, who received a bronze medal for third place in the softball throw and a gold medal for first place in the standing long jump. Tommy Neville awarded the medals to Donnie and Jimmie. Another guest celebrity was Bruce Randall, a former Mr. Universe, who showed the boys how to lift weights and the exercises they could do with them.

After the Olympics, Donnie and Jimmie were treated to a meal at McDonald's with money donated by the Three Seasons Study Club and the PTA Club.

Teachers attending the State Special Olympics were Mrs. Jean Spear, Mrs. Ben Morrow and Mrs. Carol Masbourn, local Olympics Coordinators.

The National Olympics will be held in New York in June. Elba hopes to have a representative at the National games.

With Work

Most folks celebrate birthdays with parties or special dinners or in some notable fashion. Not so for the men and women of the Army Reserve, not only in our town but all across the Nation.

Since 1969 they have celebrated not just one day but an entire month - called COMMUNITY MONTH - with work that served the community, improving the quality of life in hundreds of communities across the Country.

Each year, Community not only brings Reservists and their communities closer together and further familiarizes them with the Army Reserve, but it also encourages the beginning of new year-round projects targeted at some of their home-town's major problems.

They fight against water pollution, build jetties to prevent beach erosion, join in cleanups, launch recycling programs, give blood, hold health screenings, help Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts Troops, and hold a Career Day for high school seniors interested in learning about the military, among hundreds of other activities.

One thing is for sure, these projects provide a part of their training, along with evenings, weekends, and two weeks of Annual Training.

Those who can be invited to use the skills needed to meet the military mission. Another reason for having local projects is to help the community.

The US Army Reserve role is major part of the total defense posture of the Nation. Reservists no longer have to leave their homes and families in case of emergency - some of the units must be able to react in less than 48 hours. Community Month projects help the Reservists to be ready.

Two hundred years ago the citizen-soldiers needed only to grab their muzzle-loaders from the log cabin walls to join fellow colonists in skirmishes with the British. Mobilization was fairly simple. The intricacies of today's foreign policy as distant. There was no danger of attack from distant places with a multitude of modern weapons.

Equipping the Active Army in peacetime to meet such emergency demands would pose an impossible burden on our Nation's resources. Readiness is achieved by having individuals available for immediate mobilization in an emergency. Standby and Retired Reservists are available for Active Duty only in time of war or National emergency declared by Congress.

Almost 700,000 additional men and women - Individual Ready Reservists - would be needed as reinforcements, should mobilization occur. Among them are mobilization designees, officers and enlisted, specially chosen because of outstanding qualifications to fill authorized positions in senior Army headquarters.

We are proud of the hundreds of Active Reservists throughout the Wiregrass Area who devote their time and resources to participate in such a vital program as the Army Reserve. There are active Reserve Units located in Dothan, Abbeville, Enterprise, Knox Field at Fort Rucker, Elba, Opp and Troy. In addition there is an Area Maintenance Support Activity which provides maintenance to the Army Reserve Units in the Wiregrass Area. The Support Activity is located at Dothan, an Aviation Support Facility and an Air Area Maintenance Support Activity is located at Fort Rucker.

The men and women who comprise the some 1000 troops in these units come from every city, town and village throughout the Wiregrass Area. Who are they? They're your neighbors. Salute the Army Reserve during their observance in May of S Army Reserve Community Month. They know that their job begins at home.

Large Turnout At Kinston Picnic

About 150 to 200 people were present for the annual picnic sponsored by the Kinston Center of the Human Resource Development Corporation (HRDC). The picnic was held at Lake LeFlore, located on a tract of land owned by Ms. Libby Kimbro. Ms. Kimbro planned and developed the area into a picturesque setting by adding a variety of shrubs and flowers to blend with the natural vegetation.

Two HRDC vans brought 48 people from the Dothan and Cottonwood areas. Other centers that were represented were Elba, New Brockton and Enterprise.

Following the devotional, given by Rev. Porter Daniels of the Kinston Methodist Church, everyone participated in an enjoyable lunch, accompanied by music from the Kinston High School F. F. A. Band.

After lunch, activities began with a hog and husband calling contest, followed by a lively buck dance contest. This drew many up closer to the stage, as Thomas Donaldson, alias "Dude," fiddled away on his antique instrument.

More entertainment was again presented by the Kinston High FFA String Band, consisting of Steve Weeks, Tony Kelly, Douglas Chanceller, Michael Stanley, Travis Perry, Scotty Weeks and Lisa Nelson, and a group.

The band accompanied 10-year-old singer, Sonya Dodd, from Kinston, who has sung with local quartets around the area, and is known for her gospel and country voice.

Among those present for lunch were Mayor and Mrs. Steve Hunko, Dr. and Mrs. William Hansford and his staff of Opp, Judge and Mrs. Harold Wise, from Geneva County.

And Mr. Dan Adams from the Coffee County Bank.

The picnic is held annually to encourage senior citizens to gather, socialize and be recognized for the important role they play in the community.

The picnic planning and coordination were done at the Kinston HRDC Center, headed by Mrs. Winnie Merle Weeks.

Mrs. Janis Wilson, from the Community Services Department of Enterprise State Junior College, is the instructor for the new day-time Adult Basic Education Class which meets from 9:30 - 11:30 on Tuesdays and Thursdays of each week.

GRAYING - A WASHABILITY PROBLEM

With summer days ahead, you may find yourself constantly bleaching all-white clothes in an effort to remove the gray look. There are several reasons for "graying" in white clothes. Using inadequate amounts of detergent in hard water or with heavily soiled clothes can be the culprit. Using soap in hard water can cause graying. When soap is used in hard water, it combines with minerals to form "lime" curd which can build up on clothes leaving them gray and dingy. When the water temperature is too low, granular detergent may not dissolve. This will leave a residue and clothes may not come out completely clean. Improper soaking of heavily soiled clothes can cause graying. For heavily soiled clothing, detergent and soaking time should be increased. Using a granular non-phosphate detergent in hard water may cause build-up of gray residue on clothes and in the washer. In addition, colored clothes may lose or change color. Graying is a common wash-day problem in the summer. It doesn't have to be!

Conservation News

By: Bill Hughes, Soil Conservation Service

HOME SITE SELECTION

Recent rains have again caused many homeowners problems with drainage water. Many of these problems could have been avoided if the proper steps had been taken before building the home. The water runoff from the roof is water is greatly affected by the amount of construction and distribution of the soil by blacktop, concrete or the like. Proper drainage ways to carry off this excess water to a safe disposal area should be included in the entire lot for construction of the house or commercial building.

Because building a house today is a large investment, prospective buyers should protect their initial investment by following certain steps. First, he should insist that the contractor stop all the grading, not a proper and safe water disposal system. Although this is probably most important for low-lying level areas, lots located on the uplands should also be surveyed for proper drainage ways to insure against run-off water eroding the soil away from building foundations. Second, he should consult with local representatives of the Soil Conservation Service to see if there are any unexpected soil hazards that could cause problems. Soil survey maps show areas that are flood prone, have seasons of high water tables and those that are subject to erosion and foundation slippage. Unless the buyer has a chance to see the lot during a rainy period, many drainage problems go by unsuspected until it is too late.

The Soil Conservation Service has several pamphlets published especially for homebuyers, builders and developers to help make them aware of potential problems. These pamphlets, entitled "Soil Surveys Can Help You" are available upon request at your local SCS office. Some property owners call the SCS for assistance with site information selection and drainage evaluations before building a house or commercial enterprise. Some owners wait until the problem becomes severe, then call us. The best money spent on building a house is to be sure that your building site is satisfactory before construction begins. If you would like more information about home site selection contact the local SCS representative at 984-6332 or P. O. Box 339, New Brockton, AL 36351.

LEAFSPOT

Unless a miracle happens we are going to have a lot of leafspot disease on peanuts in the next ten days. Why? The recent rains and wet spells plus the temperature has been ideal in many cases for leafspot to begin in peanuts.

Ordinarily we recommend that spraying begin when the first leafspot appears. I would not wait for my peanuts to get six inches across as much rain as we have been having. If your peanuts have been up a few weeks I would put the first application on as soon as I could get in the field. If you have questions about this or weed control for your peanuts, call us.

Ted Prescott Retires After
35 Years Of Service

After 29 years service with the U. S. Postal Service, Mr. G. O. (Ted) Prescott has retired. He has been a rural carrier on Rts. 1, 2, 3 and 4.

During the years prior to his employment with the Post Office, Prescott worked with the Corps of Engineers on military construction projects, and at Ft. Rucker, as well as other areas of work in Elba.

His total military and civil service years are 35½.

Prescott is married to the former Ruby Kennedy of Savannah, Georgia. He is a member of the Elba United Methodist Church.

After his retirement, which was effective May 18, 1979, he plans "to be associated with a real estate interest from Birmingham, doing business in the Panama City Beach, Florida, area."

National Security Reports
Record First Quarter

National Security recently announced record results for the first quarter ended March 31, 1979. Statutory net income before extraordinary gains was $456,599 or $4.44 per share, an increase of 131% compared to $199,263 or $1.91 per share for the same quarter in 1978. The earnings per share comparison after an extraordinary gain of $100,000 in the first quarter of 1978 was $4.44 per share versus $2.29 per share.

Premium income increased 12% to $5,048,646 compared to $4,527,633. Investment income of $395,173 was 24% over last year's first quarter figure of $319,235.

Mr. J. R. Brunson, President, commented: "These results reflect a continued progress for both the Life Company and the Fire and Casualty Company. Although the Fire Company incurred increased claims due to storm damage during April, we anticipate that 1979 will be another year of growth for National Security."

National Security Insurance Company sells a complete line of life, fire and casualty insurance policies. The Company also owns a 94% interest in a 4,500 acre tract of land located in Morgan County, Tennessee, which has potentially marketable gas and coal reserves.

National Security Insurance Company shares are traded in the over-the-counter market with the NASDAQ symbol NSIC.

Elba Library Given Books

The Peoples Bank has presented the Elba Public Library a two-volume, Limited Edition publication of McKenney and Hall's "History of the Indian Tribes of North America."

An official publication of The American Museum of Natural History, the work is approximately 100 pages long, and is a limited edition of 5,000. This is the first complete edition of the publication since 1872, and is an exact replica of the edition of 1848-50 which incorporates all of Thomas McKenney's important revisions.

In order to insure complete historical veracity, the high-grade, leather-bound volumes still contain the broken typegraphy occasionally found in 19th century letterpress printing. One of the most important documents in the chronicle of the North American Indian, the volumes contain the biographies and full color lithographic portraits of 120 prominent American Indians.
